The new Education Act applies to adult education In July 2012, the new Education Act (2010:800) and the Ordinance on Adult education (2011:1108) became applicable for municipal adult education (Komvux), education for adults with intellectual disabilities (Särvux) and Swedish for immigrants (SFI), as well as certain equivalent educational courses. At the same time, the new curriculum for adult education and training became applicable for municipal adult education (Komvux), education for adults with intellectual disabilities (Särvux) and equivalent educational courses. The new Education Act strengthens the possibility of education tailored to the needs and situation of the individual. The Act entitles all pupils to study and vocational guidance, strengthens the significance of individual study plans and gives validation a more prominent role as a natural part of education. Changes in the Swedish for immigrants education System. Due to this change, municipal adult education has been suggested to be provided at basic level, at secondary level and in the form of Swedish for immigrants. The home municipality is suggested to be required to ensure that a person who intends commencing municipal adult education is offered educational and vocational guidance. The municipality will also be responsible for developing an individual study plan for each student and more considerations should be provided. The changes are proposed to enter into force on January 1, 2015 but are to apply as of January 1, 2016. New target for the Swedish folkbildning The Swedish term folkbildning refers to the folk high school (Folkhögskolan) should be recognized as a particular type of education. The goal for the folkbildning policy for the first time gets an independent goal and that the folk high school (Folkhögskolan) should be recognized as a particular type of education. The goal for the folkbildning policy is proposed to be: The folkbildning should give everyone the opportunity to join with others to increase their knowledge and education fo programmes exist in a wide range of vocational areas and their common objective is to provide advanced vocational education and training tailored to labour market needs. Right from the initial phase, companies and business sector social partners participate in the development of these programmes. Each higher vocational programme has a steering group in which the social partners and representatives from working life form a majority. The Swedish National Agency for Higher Vocational Education has responsibility for all matters concerning Higher Vocational Education in Sweden. The Agency analyses labour market needs for qualified workforce, decides which programmes are to be provided and allocates public funding to education providers. The Agency also carries out follow-ups, evaluations and inspections. All programmes are at a post-secondary level, free of charge and qualify for student financial aid from the Swedish National Board for Student Aid.
