ABOUT US

In September 2015, the United Nations Member States adopted the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which form part of a universal, ambitious and sustainable development agenda for the people, the planet and prosperity. Education, articulated as a stand-alone goal (SDG4) with seven targets and three means of implementation, and mentioned within the targets of five other SDGs, is central to the realization of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

TOWARDS LIFELONG LEARNING

BELEM FRAMEWORK FOR ACTION, 2009

The role of lifelong learning is critical in addressing global and educational issues and challenges. Lifelong learning “from cradle to grave” is a philosophy, a conceptual framework and an organising principle of all forms of education. Based on inclusive, emancipatory, humanistic and democratic values; it is all-encompassing and integral to the vision of a knowledge-based society. We reaffirm the four pillars of learning as

POLICY:

Belem Framework for Action, 2009

Policies and legislative measures for adult education need to be comprehensive, inclusive and integrated within a lifelong and life-wide learning perspective, based on sector-wide and inter-sectoral approaches, covering and linking all components of learning and education.

To these ends, we commit ourselves to:
