

Government Promise

The application of “Movable-Type Printing” for being listed on the Urgent Protection of Non-Material Cultural Heritage List is made on the basis of fully prior knowledge and large-scale investigation. At the same time, we have also solicited the ideas and suggestions of the bearers of movable-type printing and specialists concerned. The People’s Government of Rui’an and the related departments and organizations hereby solemnly promise that we shall give fully support to the project in fund, manpower and resources and the professional researchers in this field shall also attach great importance to it and put in much energy.

To list the Movable-Type Printing of China on the Urgent Protection of Non-Material Cultural Heritage List is the common desire of our city and people.

Culture, Radio & Television News Publishing Bureau

Rui’an, Zhejiang

February, 2009

Promise

As a bearer of the movable-type printing of China, I promise that I will make an active cooperation in the application of movable-type printing of China for being listed on the Urgent Protection of Non-Material Cultural Heritage List, earnestly carry out the related rights and obligations of the bearer, and devote myself to the protection of non-material cultural heritage. In addition, I also agree that the related original information and objects be used as application material for display and dissemination.

Bearer:

于超群

February 25, 2009

Promise

As a bearer of the movable-type printing of China, I promise that I will make an active cooperation in the application of movable-type printing of China for being listed on the Urgent Protection of Non-Material Cultural Heritage List, earnestly carry out the related rights and obligations of the bearer, and devote myself to the protection of non-material cultural heritage. In addition, I also agree that the related original information and objects be used as application material for display and dissemination.

Bearer: 林初寅

February 25, 2009