

Recu CLT / CIH / ITH
Le	11 AVR. 2014
N°	0325

FREE PRIOR AND INFORMED CONSENT (1)

In Barangay Hapao, Municipality of Hungduan, Province of Ifugao, the Dumupag is the designated lead family in the conduct of all agricultural activities particularly the huowah, or the post-harvest thanksgiving ritual of which the punnuk is included.

I, Elena Angiwan – Uyammi, the dumupag, hereby strongly support the nomination of the punnuk and its inclusion in the Multinational Nomination of Traditional “tug-of-war” to the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

It is with great pride that we anticipate the local, national and international attention accorded to our efforts to ensure that the heritage of our forebears be valued and practiced by future generations.

Elena Uyammi

ELENA ANGIWAN-UYAMMI

Dumupag

Hapao, Hungduan, Ifugao

May 24, 2013

CONFORME:

Monaliza A. Uyammi-Bimuyag
MONALIZA A. UYAMMI-BIMUYAG

Daughter

FREE PRIOR AND INFORMED CONSENT (2)

As part of the Culture and Heritage Preservation Program of both the Municipal Government of Hungduan and the Barangay Government of Hapao, Hungduan, the safeguarding, promotion and continuous practice of the punnuk tradition is of utmost concern.

On behalf of the stakeholders, community members, ritual specialists and village elders from Hapao, Hungduan, Ifugao who took an active part in the preparation of the nomination of the punnuk, we pledge our strong support for its inclusion in the Multinational Nomination of Traditional “tug-of-war” to the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

RAMON M. GAYADANG

Barangay Captain

Hapao, Hungduan, Ifugao

June 8, 2013