1. Name, venue, date and organizer of the activity:

II. Somut Olmayan Kültürel Miras Kış Okulu (II. ICH Winter School)

20-24 January 2018, Çankırı- Turkey

Institute for Intangible Cultural Heritage

Gazi University Turkish Folklore Research and Application Center (THBMER) UNESCO Chair on Intangible Cultural Heritage in Formal and Informal Education, Çankırı Municipality, Turkish National Commission for UNESCO are the co-organizers.

2. What is the particular relevance of the activity to purposes and objectives the 2003 Convention and its compliance with the principles of the Convention?

The event aims to further raise awareness among and strengthen the capacity of young professionals in the fields related to ICH thereby also contributing to the enhancement of the Convention's visibility.

The event included discussions on wide range of issues reflecting the purposes, objectives and principles of the Convention (Please see Annex). It discussed and highlighted the recent developments and debates on ICH and supported these debates to be furthered among young experts and to obtain youth perspectives on them.

Building on the experience gained last year during the first ICH Winter School, this year it endeavoured to promote more active participation of youth and focus on formal and informal education, which is one of the priority areas set for the future work of the Convention. The organizers observed that the theme require active participation of a wider audience, therefore different actors were invited to the meeting as participants and others i.e. artists. This allowed for the educators and practitioners, artists and bearers to reflect on the themes of the classes from their perspectives.

The event also allowed for raising awareness on the role and function of National Commissions for UNESCO, UNESCO Chairs and higher education in general, for safeguarding ICH through different methods and processes.
