

Memory of the World National Committee

Australia

The Australian Memory of the World Program aims to establish and maintain the Australian Memory of the World Register, a Register of lost and missing Australian documentary heritage, coordinate and propose nominations from Australia to the Memory of the World International Register, raise awareness and promote the Program through publications and presentations, and encourage and seek government and private sector sponsorship for specific projects and activities.

Chairperson:

The Chairperson of the Committee is Ms Roslyn Russell and all the correspondence related to the National Committee should be sent to her.
