ISSUE 1, 2014

28.04.2014

25 March, 2014. The informational source «Observatory on Arts Education in the CIS Countries» was officially opened.

The Observatory was developed as part of the UNESCO/IFESCCO project «Arts Education in CIS Countries: Building Creative Capacities for the XXI century» (2009 - 2014). The information portal of the Observatory is based on hosting provided by the UNESCO Institute for Information Technologies in Education (UNESCO IITE).

The Observatory provides a variety of different sources:

- basic international documents about arts education,
- materials of UNESCO world conferences on issues and prospects of the arts education and education through arts;
- documents regulating the activities in the field of arts education in CIS countries;
- analytical reports issued during the implementation of the above-mentioned UNESCO/IFESCCO project by 10 involved countries;
- latest news about programmes, events, research, publications, and communities related to fine arts, education, and culture throughout the CIS countries, both at national and regional levels.

The authors of the materials, experts from the CIS countries, consolidate the Observatory's meaningful content and represent the Observatory in different countries' professional institutes.

Based on the current web-source, the Observatory provides further Newsletters of recent news, events, and publications.
