REPORT OF THE INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMME FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF COMMUNICATION (IPDC) ON ITS ACTIVITIES (2010-2012)

OUTLINE

Source: Article 10 of the Statutes of the International Programme for the Development of Communication (IPDC).

Background: This report is submitted to the Intergovernmental Council of the International Programme for the Development of Communication (IPDC) in pursuance of Article 10 of its Statutes adopted at the 21st session, which stipulates that the Director-General shall submit to the Council, at each of its sessions, a report on the implementation of the Programme.

Purpose: The present report covers IPDC's activities during the period between the 27th (2010) and 28th (2012) sessions of the Council. It provides an overview of important decisions and initiatives of the Council, IPDC projects and the financial situation of the Programme.

INTRODUCTION

The International Programme for the Development of Communication (IPDC), which was created in 1980, is the only intergovernmental programme in the UN system mandated to mobilize international support in order to contribute to sustainable development, democracy and good governance by strengthening the capacities of developing countries and countries in transition in the field of electronic and print media. Since its creation, IPDC has channelled more than US$ 100 million to over 1500 media development projects in some 140 countries.

Its unique role has been continuously reaffirmed through resolutions adopted by the United Nations General Assembly, including the most recent one Resolution A/RES/66/81, "Information in the service of humanity", adopted on 9 December 2011 at the 66th session of the General Assembly, which urges all countries, organizations of the United Nations system and all other stakeholders concerned "to provide full support for the International Programme for the Development of Communication of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, which should support both public and private media."

27th SESSION OF THE INTERGOVERNMENTAL COUNCIL OF THE IPDC AND THE FOLLOW-UP TO ITS DECISIONS

The overall responsibility for the Programme lies with the Intergovernmental Council of the IPDC, which meets every two years to assess the work carried out by the Programme. It consists of representatives from 39 Member States elected by the General Conference of UNESCO.

The 27th session of the Intergovernmental Council of the IPDC was held at UNESCO Headquarters, Paris from 24 to 26 March 2010. (Final Report available at: <http://unesdoc.unesco.org/images/0018/001896/189697m.pdf>).

In accordance with the Council's rules of procedure, the Bureau of the IPDC Intergovernmental Council was elected. Its composition is as follows:

|                     |   |                           |  |

| Members:     | NamibiaRussian FederationUnited States of America | Rapporteur:        | Mr Mamadou Koumé(Senegal)          |

Following the report submitted by the Director-General on the Safety of Journalists and the Danger of Impunity, the Council adopted a Decision which led the Director-General decided to organize a UN Inter-Agency Meeting on journalists' safety at UNESCO Headquarters in Paris on 13 and 14 September 2011. Representatives of United Nations agencies, programmes and funds as well as Member States, professional associations and NGOs drafted a comprehensive UN Action Plan to improve the safety of journalists and combat the impunity of crimes committed against them. This document is being submitted for endorsement to the 28th session of the Council and will subsequently be presented to the bodies in charge of UN-wide coordination. The latest Director-General Report on the Safety of Journalists and the Danger of Impunity is also presented to the Council. It includes her condemnations of the assassinations of journalists in 2010-2011 as well as the responses received by Member States on the status of the judicial enquiries conducted on each of the killings condemned by UNESCO between 2006 and 2009.

The application of the UNESCO-IPDC Media Development Indicators (MDIs), which were endorsed by the IPDC Intergovernmental Council in 2008 as an “important diagnostic tool” for assessing media landscapes, has gained momentum. In March 2011, the IPDC Bureau decided to set aside US$ 100,000 in the IPDC Special Account to be used for this purpose. Through a combination of both Regular Programme and IPDC funding, MDI-based assessments have now been completed in Bhutan, Croatia, East Timor, Ecuador, Jordan, the Maldives, Mauritania and Mozambique, while others are still on-going in 11 countries, including Egypt and Tunisia. These assessments have made it possible to identify media development gaps at national level, provide evidence-based recommendations on how to address them, and guide the formulation of media-related policies.

UNESCO has now developed a new tool – a set of gender-sensitive indicators for media (GSIM)-designed to evaluate gender mainstreaming in media, both in terms of how women are represented in media content and the extent to which they participate in the management structure of media. The IPDC Bureau was briefed on a proposal to present the final draft of the GSIM indicators to the Council for discussion at its 28th session. The CI sector is also planning to develop more detailed and refined sub-indicators on other thematic issues besides gender in coming years.

A thematic debate on “Free, independent and pluralistic media: the enabling role of the State” was organized at the 27th Council session, in which three examples of good practice in this area were presented: the Media Development and Diversity Agency in South Africa, the new Uruguayan Law on Community Broadcasting, and the Indonesian Press Council. Member States took advantage of this debate to share information about their respective national media environments and ways in which positive State intervention has helped to foster media pluralism and freedom of expression.

178 PROJECTS APPROVED FOR FINANCING

Two annual meetings of the Bureau of the IPDC Council were organized at UNESCO Headquarters in Paris, in March 2011 and February 2012 respectively. The main purpose of the meetings was to select the media development projects to be financed by IPDC in 2011-2012. A total of 223 project proposals were prepared for submission for the Bureau’s consideration by media organizations worldwide. Proposals were developed following the IPDC guidelines for project preparation and with reference to the Media Development Indicators. Expert assistance was provided by the UNESCO professionals based in 33 field offices and at Headquarters. Among the 223 projects proposals considered, the IPDC Bureau approved 178 projects (31 regional, 1 interregional and 146 national projects from 86 countries) for a total amount of US$ 4,485,960 (for the list of the approved projects, please see the annex). The projects approved by the IPDC Bureau in 2011 and 2012 can be broken down as follows:

FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE IPDC

In accordance with IPDC's procedures, the Bureau allocates funds to projects only on the basis of financial resources already available at the moment of its proceedings. This practice helps to avoid any deficit in the IPDC budget and to proceed with the launching of the projects immediately after the Bureau's meeting. During the period between 2010 and 2012, a total of US$ 4,277,467 was received from 13 donor countries which was used for the financing of the 178 projects approved in 2011-2012.

IPDC SPECIAL INITIATIVE: Building centres of excellence in journalism education in Africa

Having recognized journalism education as a major issue to be addressed in Africa, UNESCO in 2007 identified 20 institutions with the potential to become centres of excellence and of reference in this area. In 2010-2011, within the framework of the IPDC initiative, over US$ 700,000 was allocated to purchase equipment, textbooks and organize training-of-trainers workshops for the centres, including three workshops on pedagogical methodologies coordinated by the Deutsche Welle Akademie in cooperation with UNESCO in which all participants from all the centres took part.

EVALUATION OF RECENT IPDC PROJECTS

The projects submitted to IPDC are considered to be a part of the long-term programme implemented by IPDC in each country. Every two years, the IPDC Bureau makes a selection of implemented projects to undergo an external evaluation. The reports on seven evaluated IPDC projects were presented and discussed during the 27th Council session. At its 55th meeting, the Bureau decided to increase the funds allocated from the IPDC Special Account for this purpose in order to enable the IPDC Secretariat to reinforce the evaluation of IPDC projects and ensure adequate follow-up. The biennial allocation was thus increased from US$25 000 (53rd IPDC Bureau meeting, March 2009) to US$40 000 in view of financing the missions of independent evaluators to complete at least 12 evaluation reports on completed projects per biennium. In accordance with this decision, 16 evaluation reports have been completed for submission to the 28th session of the IPDC Council.

UNESCO-IPDC PRIZE FOR RURAL COMMUNICATION

The Nepal Forum of Environmental Journalists and the Kenyan Arid Lands Information Network are the co-winners of the 2012 edition of the UNESCO-IPDC Prize for Rural Communication, which recognizes meritorious and innovative efforts to improve communication for rural communities in developing countries. The award ceremony is to take place during the 28th session of the IPDC Council. The Prize, which involves a cash award of US$ 20,000, is granted every two years following a recommendation by the Bureau of UNESCO's International Programme for the Development of Communication (IPDC), which acts as prize jury.
