Before the ratification in 2012 by the Netherlands of the 2003 UNESCO ICH Convention FUHIKUBO has been video recording the elderly of Bonaire since the nineties for their stories about all kinds of subjects pertaining to Bonaire's heritage, culture and nature. In that respect, the archives of FUHIKUBO now have over 1000-recorded interviews and many documentaries and specials on a variety of topics pertaining intangible cultural heritage. This tremendous wealth in information is available free of charge to the public at large via the website archivoboneiru.com and since last 2017 there is also a dedicated TV channel, Bonaire.tv showing 24 hours all these documentaries and interviews. The programs are shown on the other islands of Curacao, Aruba, St. Maarten, and the Netherlands.

After the ratification of the Convention by the Netherlands, FUHIKUBO continues to play an important role in the local implementation of the convention. The director, Mr. Franklin Antoin is a member of the UNESCO Workgroup Bonaire since 2014 and has attended all the sessions of the Capacity Building Project of the 2003 IUCH Convention throughout the years 2014-2018 sponsored by the Netherlands for Aruba, Bonaire, Curacao, St. Maarten, St. Eustatius, Saba and Surinam.

Throughout the years, FUHIKUBO has branched out and documents oral history on the other islands of the ex-Netherlands Antilles and these programs are archived and shown on local TV Stations.

The Founder and Director of FUHIKUBO is Mr. Franklin Dominico Antoin. A Bonerian with a strong interest in history, culture and nature. Because of Mr. Antoin's profession as a journalist for the local newspaper EXTRA, he started in 1977, he has transcribed and written thousands of articles, stories, and series throughout his career that have appeared on a daily basis in the Papiamentu language newspaper EXTRA distributed on Aruba, Bonaire and Curacao and available online. He has therefore also promoted the use of the local language Papiamentu as vehicle of transmission. He has also published many books on historical happenings, special events and the communities of and on the island of Bonaire. Mr. Antoin and fellow board members of FUHIKUBO provide the various courses and training activities.

The organization has built up over forty years of active experience in the field of researching, documenting, safeguarding, transmission intangible cultural history and shares this knowledge and serves as an example for others.

6.d. Description of the organization's competence and expertise

Please provide information on the personnel and members of the organization, describe their competence and expertise in the domain of intangible cultural heritage, in particular those that demonstrate the capacities of the organization to provide advisory services to the Committee, and explain how they acquired such competence. Documentation of such competences may be submitted, if necessary, under section 8.c below.

Not to exceed 200 words; do not attach additional information

The organization has built up over forty years of active experience in the field of researching, documenting, safeguarding, transmission intangible cultural history and shares this knowledge and serves as an example for others.

FUHIKUBO employs one camerawoman who also does the editing. The other permanent employee is sponsored by Bonaire communications digitizes, uploads, manages the audio and audiovisual material and equipment of FUHIKUBO. The organization works with volunteers and trainees. Extra camera people are hired for specific projects and transcription of documentaries is outsourced. Mr. Antoin and fellow board members provide the various courses and training activities.

FUHIKUBO has a core group of 15 volunteers who received training, few times in collaboration with UNESCO's ICH Capacity Building project, in documenting oral history through qualitative research, interviewing techniques, time-coding, editing, quantitative research, digitizing, and archiving. The interviewing group has produced several documentaries of the local festivals such as the Harvest festival - Simadan, Drum Festival – Barí, Patron Saints – San Juan i San Pedro, Masquerade–Maskarada, Healing masters–Kuranderia and Natural Disasters–Fenómeno Natural. The skills gathered and transmitted for making documentaries are based on the vast experience of documentaries made by FUHIKUBO of traditions, social practices, traditional craftsmanship and oral history.

7. The organization's experiences in cooperating with communities, groups and intangible cultural heritage practitioners

The Committee will evaluate whether NGOs requesting accreditation 'cooperate in a spirit of mutual respect with communities, groups and, where appropriate, individuals that create, practise and transmit intangible cultural heritage' (Criterion D). Please briefly describe such experiences here.

FUHIKUBO's vast experience collaborating with individuals and local communities in the area of ICH has provided her a very positive reputation. Her services are actively sought, i.e. interviewing the elderly, practitioners and artists, who have given the organization the growth it has experienced becoming an institution with an impressive digital and physical archive it has today for safeguarding and transmission. She receives daily family pictures and documents for safekeeping including 45, 33 and 78 rpm phonograph records; musical recordings, audiovisual materials, books and objects. There is a specific group of volunteers in charge of selecting, describing, and digitizing photographs. FUHIKUBO has thousands of photographs. Another group, including for example bank employees doing community work as part of their employment, are trained to give nature walks of all areas of Bonaire, provide informative/educational talks on history, culture and nature and also archiving – registering books, manuscripts, magazines, etc. in FUHIKUBO's physical library. Students, teachers, and community at large visit the physical library regularly. Collaboration: FUHIKUBO collaborates with a.o Mangazina di Rei on Bonaire, Regional archive Dordrecht the Netherlands and NAAM in Curacao.

Courses: FUHIKUBO provides Papiamentu writing courses to the community. At the end of the course, the groups produce a newspaper, ESUN that is widely distributed. There are investigative research courses for teachers using FUHIKUBO's archives and Bonaire's history courses for the public and newcomers to the island.

Radio program: The weekly two hour long, radio program BEKU, in the air continuous since early nineties at the radio station Voz di Boneiru (Voice of Bonaire), provides the platform for the community at large to bring forward, discuss, exchange on the state of Bonaire's holistic culture and active society.

Website, Social Media, TV: FUHIKUBO's digital archive is reaching full NAS capacity now at around 45 TB with audiovisual, visual and data information. FUHIKUBO's website archivoboneiru.com where anyone in the world can access the complete archive with new material uploaded on a regular basis via archivoboneiru.com. ### FUHIKUBO ICH Safeguarding Workplan 2019

There is an urgent need to continue to document oral history. Each person that passes is an archive lost. FUHIKUBO has done a lot but there is a much more work to be done. The focus continues to be filming of interviews on ICH for the television programs; Herensia (Heritage); Boneiru, Ayera pa Awe Bonaire yesteryears to today through which we attempt to rescue information about the history and culture of Bonaire. Next to this is the radio program BEKU and courses for teachers so that they can produce school materials on Bonaire's ICH. The other priority is to continue to produce documentaries of Bonaire's cultural ICH elements, transcribing them and publish booklets, similar to Kuranderia, for use by teachers, students, and public at large.
