

Announcement

In line with Section 8.5.3.2.1 of the General Guidelines of the Memory of the World (MoW) Programme, which provides for access to nomination files hosted on the online platform to non-public documentary heritage and/or relevant national stakeholders, the Secretariat is pleased to declare a specified window during which public comments, support or other information relevant to aspects of any current nomination may be lodged by any individual or entity through Member States, using the National Commission for UNESCO or, in the absence of a National Commission, the relevant government body in charge of relations with UNESCO, involving, if one exists, the relevant national MoW committee.

Accordingly, if you are interested, you are encouraged to contact the concerned National Commission for UNESCO or, in the absence of a National Commission, the relevant government body in charge of relations with UNESCO, involving, if one exists, the relevant national MoW committee, to grant you access to the nomination files hosted on the online platform accessible only to Member States of UNESCO.

From the date of this announcement, you have a period of 60 days (or before 12 May 2022), in which to provide such comments, using a fixed form available on the Memory of the World website

The Memory of the World Secretariat (mowsecretariat@unesco.org) remains at your disposal for any further clarification or follow-up in this regard.
