

Ms Helga Chulepin

Helga Chulepin is geologist, mining engineering specialist, and community relation developer.

She graduated in 1996, began working in the Geology Department of the Agriculture Faculty and Science Faculty, (UDELAR – Uruguay) on geological research, geological mapping. Later she worked as a mining consultant and specialist for environmental and social aspects in the mining industry. She has been responsible for the environmental and social impact assessment and sustainability advisor in many projects. She occupied management positions in several multinational companies.

From 2012 to 2015 she held the position as technical coordinator of the Grutas del Palacio UNESCO Global Geopark, the first UNESCO Global Geopark in Uruguay and second in Latin America. She was the technical expert of the application dossier and the auditing process. Today, she collaborates as external technical advisor. She is individual member of the Global Geoparks Network.