Free, prior and informed consent for nomination of the “Turkmen-Style Needlework Art” for inscription on the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity in the form of a multinational file submitted by Turkmenistan and Islamic Republic of Iran

Needlework garments are an integral part of the culture and life of the people, incorporating the traditions of the “Turkmen style Needlework Art”. The long-standing folk experience, methods and skills of the “Turkmen style Needlework Art” are constantly being passed from the older generation of the Turkmen family to the younger generation.

We fully support all jointly developed measures to preserve this model in the future and declare that we will take an active part in their successful implementation.

The inscription of the "Turkmen style Needlework Art" in the List will strengthen the understanding of the values of the Turkmen national intangible cultural heritage to the world community, as well as strengthen mutual understanding, friendship, solidarity and peace between the peoples of the region and the world through cultural relations.

By considering the following, we, the Model House of the Ministry of Textile Industry of Turkmenistan, hereby sign our free consent to nominate “Turkmen style Needlework Art” to be included in the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.
