The pre-trial investigation is ongoing	In addition, the courts passed 2 convictions, which came into force upon the attack on the journalist of the newspaper "Vesti" Veremiya VV and his beating in Kyiv. In particular, the verdict of Darnytskyi district court of Kyiv from 03.09.2018 Chemesa SM found guilty of hooliganism, as well as aiding and abetting illegal imprisonment and torture on the night of January 22, 2014 in Kyiv as part of the group "Oplot", and sentenced to 3 years and 3 months in prison. Judgment of the Shevchenkivsky District Court of Kyiv of 22.12.2017 Krysina Yu.V. found guilty and sentenced to 4 years in prison with a probation period of 2 years. The verdict was appealed by the prosecution.

						The verdict of the Court of Appeal of the city of Kyiv of June 13, 2018 partially satisfied the appeals of the prosecution, the verdict of the court of first instance was revoked in part of the sentence and in this part a new one was approved - Krysina Yu.V. sentenced to 5 years in prison. At the end of last year, the Criminal Court of Cassation of the Supreme Court rejected the cassation appeals of the defense and upheld the verdict of the Kyiv Court of Appeal of June 13, 2018, by which Krysina Yu.V. found guilty of a gross violation of public order, accompanied by a special audacity committed by a group of persons, using an object specially adapted to inflict bodily harm, committed against a journalist of the newspaper "Vesti" Veremiya VV, which took place during the Revolution of Dignity on the night from 18 to 19 February 2014, and sentenced to 5 years in prison. Currently, the convict continues to serve the sentence imposed by the Kyiv Court of Appeal in one of the penitentiaries. Another criminal case on the murder of Vesti newspaper journalist Veremiya VV on charges of one person is considered in the Shevchenkivsky district court of Kyiv. The final court decision has not been made.
