

SYRIA

The Syrian Government would state that draft laws have been prepared for forming the National Consultative Commission for the Protection of Cultural Property. The Commission will apply the provisions of the International Convention concluded at The Hague in 1954.