Traditional Arts Association was established initially to safeguard intangible cultural heritage of the Turkish traditional arts as well as raising heritage awareness to the viability of various arts and crafts through periodical and/or temporary programmes, projects and activities. The Association also aims to support the cultural community of the traditional arts in order to maintain the transmission of the tradition.

The mission of the Traditional Arts Association is to introduce, revitalize, sustain and safeguard the Turkish traditional arts and crafts.

The vision of the Association is to become a pioneer NGO and a consultative body in safeguarding the intangible cultural heritage in Turkey.

The Association's activities can be grouped under seven sections:

1. Projects: The Association conducts various projects for safeguarding the intangible cultural heritage; to maintain and develop mutual interactions and cultural dialogue with national and international institutions and communities of traditional arts.
2. Inventories: The Association ceaselessly works on documenting the traditional arts and crafts and their artists in order to safeguard the intangible cultural heritage by preparing a complete inventory of the arts and artists. The inventory is regularly updated with new information as well as additional oral expressions.
3. Competitions: The Association designs, organizes and supports traditional arts and crafts competitions on national and international level. The general scheme of the competitions is to provide opportunity for young artists who will become the masters of the future.
4. Academic Events: The Association organizes academic events such as congresses, symposia, panels, and conferences. The events combine theoretical studies as well as artistic productions, usually enhanced with exhibitions.
5. Publications: The Association makes wide range of publications within an annual schedule. The publications vary from academic research on traditional arts, to monographs, Festschriften, Proceedings and catalogues.
6. Awards and Fellowships: The Association presents senior and junior awards to the artists and scholars active in the field.
5. Exhibitions: Periodical and permanent exhibitions are designed and conducted by the Association.
7. International Relations: Aiming to become a known executive body of the traditional arts and crafts internationally, the Association develops projects in conjunction with the national and international institutions.

6. The organization's activities in the field of safeguarding intangible cultural heritage

Sections 6.a to 6.d are the primary place to establish that the NGO satisfies the criterion of having 'proven competence, expertise and experience in safeguarding (as defined in Article 2.3 of the Convention) intangible cultural heritage belonging, inter alia, to one or more specific domains' (Criterion A).

6.c. Description of the organization's activities

Organizations requesting accreditation should briefly describe their recent activities and their relevant experience in safeguarding intangible cultural heritage, including those demonstrating the capacities of the organization to provide advisory services to the Committee. Relevant documentation may be submitted, if necessary, under section 8.c below.

Not to exceed 550 words; do not attach additional information

Since its establishment in 2007, Traditional Arts Association has been the leading NGO of Turkey in the field of intangible cultural heritage. The Association conducts research, makes academic publications, promotes traditional arts and crafts, supports conservation projects, records oral tradition and masters, organizes exhibitions and competitions to support the young practitioners as well as safeguarding the artistic production. The Association's experience in various areas displays devotion to its mission and vision in safeguarding the intangible cultural heritage.

Activities of Traditional Arts Association are given in chronological order:

Silver Tulip Award (since 2006): This is the first award in the category of traditional arts which is presented to individuals who dedicated their lives to the traditional arts, contributed in its development, promotion, and safeguarding. The winners of the award are determined based upon their artistic productions or scientific contributions.

Academic and Artistic Events (since 2007): International Turkish Calligraphy (Hüsn-ü Hat), Manuscript Painting (Miniature), Binding symposia and national Turkish Art of Marbling (Ebru) and Illumination symposia are held, all of which combine academic and artistic activities such as panels, exhibitions and workshops.

International Events: "Two Cultures One Art: Istanbul-Tahran" (2008). A symposium and an exhibition were organized bringing miniature artists from Turkey and Iran, accompanied by a book.

"Masters of Istanbul" inventory (2010): The inventory of arts and crafts workshops in Istanbul was started and completed in 2010. The project was supported by a printed map, a booklet, a documentary (eleven episodes) and a regularly updated web site both in Turkish and English. The project is expanded to "Masters of Turkey" which is in the making.

"Fidelity to the Tradition" (since 2010): Various programmes are held in order to introduce and commemorate the deceased masters and academics to the younger generation and transmit the tradition to the posterity. The individual programmes are supported by a web site.

A project was conducted to introduce the traditional arts in the Balkan States in 2011.

"Masters of Future" Competition (since 2013): The competition was designed in 2012 to promote and encourage the young artists in the field of traditional arts. The annually organized competition supervised 1200 national / international participants since the beginning and the grant budget was 150.000 TL (Turkish Liras). There are separate web sites dedicated to each contest in Turkish, English, and Arabic.

"Contemporary Young Artists, Tomorrow's Masters" (2016): This project was organized to support and promote the young artists of the traditional arts which was enriched with a panel, a catalogue and an exhibition. The panel was the first of its kind where the principal issues of the traditional arts in Turkey were discussed in detail.

Education Workshop on Copyright Issues (2016): The workshop was organized to raise awareness to the fundamental copyright issues in traditional arts. The Association also gives pro bono legal counselling service to its members in copyright and royalty matters.

Publications (since 2007): Almost all the projects, competitions, gatherings and proceedings have been published. The recent publications include Festschrifts in honour of emeritus professors; monographs on Ottoman Flower and Flowerists (200), Karagöz (Turkish Shadow Theater, inscribed on the representative list of ICH 2014), Ebru (Turkish Art of Marbling, inscribed on the representative list of ICH 2014), Hat (Turkish Calligraphy), Miras (Heritage).

Ongoing Projects (2017): Kirkyama (Patchwork) competition and panel.

6.d. Description of the organization's competence and expertise

Please provide information on the personnel and membership of the organization, describe their competence and expertise in the domain of intangible cultural heritage, in particular those demonstrating the capacities of the organization to provide advisory services to the Committee, and explain how they acquired such competence. Documentation of such competences may be submitted, if necessary, under section 8.c below.

Not to exceed 200 words; do not attach additional information

Traditional Arts Association has two executive bodies: Board of Directors and Supervisory Board. Both bodies are consisted of academics, experts, and artists among whom are art historians, traditional arts theoreticians, calligraphers, illuminators, binders, etc.

The Fine Arts and Traditional Arts Departments of the universities as well as major art workshops and schools are represented at the Association.

The Association has a strong membership program with over six hundred members. The masters and craftsmen are also among the members of the Association.

It is important to note that the majority of the members are women.

7. The organization's experiences cooperating with communities, groups and intangible cultural heritage practitioners

The Committee will evaluate whether NGOs requesting accreditation 'cooperate in a spirit of mutual respect with communities, groups and, where appropriate, individuals that create, maintain and transmit intangible cultural heritage' (Criterion D). Please briefly describe such experiences here.

Not to exceed 350 words; do not attach additional information

The Association works closely with related communities such as the traditional arts departments of the universities, municipalities, museums (national and international), master's workshops, craftsmen and craftswomen, students, legal art courses and private art schools nationally.

The projects are designed and conducted with the initiative of academic and artistic bodies that the Association has cooperation with. Therefore the projects are designed according to the needs of the field as they provide the Association with the recent intangible cultural heritage issues. Mimar Sinan Fine Arts University, Presidency of the Turkish Manuscripts Institution, Chester Beatty Library in Dublin, Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality and other district municipalities of Istanbul, Classical Turkish Arts Foundation were among the co-organizers.

The experts and legal bodies act in the organizing committee, scientific advisory board, advisory committees.

8. Documentation of the operational capacities of the organization

The Operational Directives require that an organization requesting accreditation submit documentation proving that it possesses the operational capacities listed under Criterion E. Such supporting documents may take various forms, in light of the diverse legal regimes in effect in different States. Submitted documents should be translated whenever possible into English or French if the originals are in another language. Please label supporting documents clearly with the section (8.a, 8.b or 8.c) to which they refer.

8.a. Membership and personnel

Proof of the participation of the members of the organization, as requested under Criterion E (i), may take diverse forms such as a list of directors, list of personnel and statistical information on the quantity and categories of members; a complete membership roster usually need not be submitted.

Please attach supporting documents, labelled 'Section 8.a'.

8.b. Recognized legal personality

If the organization has a charter, articles of incorporation, by-laws or similar establishing documents, a copy should be attached. If, under the applicable domestic law, the organization has a legal personality recognized through some means other than an establishing document (for instance, through a published notice in an official gazette or journal), please provide documentation showing how that legal personality was established.

Please attach supporting documents, labelled 'Section 8.b'.

8.c. Duration of existence and activities

If it is not already indicated clearly from the documentation provided for section 8.b, please submit documentation proving that the organization has existed for at least four years at the time it requests accreditation. Please provide documentation showing that it has carried out appropriate safeguarding activities during that time, including those described above in section 6.c. Supplementary materials such as books, CDs or DVDs, or similar publications cannot be taken into consideration and should not be submitted.

Please attach supporting documents, labelled 'Section 8.c'.

9. Signature

The application must include the name and signature of the person empowered to sign it on behalf of the organization requesting accreditation. Requests without a signature cannot be considered.
