

Launch of NISSEM Global Briefs: Social and Emotional Learning in Context

‘What does SEL mean in your context?’

Online – Registration link
28 April 2022, 14h-15h30 (CEST)

Agenda

This session celebrates the release of the third volume of NISSEM’s Global Brief which looks at Social and Emotional Learning in a variety of global contexts. A strong commitment to social emotional learning that builds the capabilities of students as ethical thinkers and doers is one of the recommendations of UNESCO’s recently released futures of education report, Reimagining our futures together: A new social contract for education. Understanding the different ways of contextualizing social and emotional learning is a centerpiece of UNESCO’s broader work in this area.

- Welcome – Mr. Sobhi Tawil, Director, UNESCO Future Learning and Innovation (FLI)
- Opening remarks – Ms. Stefania Giannini, UNESCO Assistant Director-General for Education
- Introduction to the volume – Mr. Andy Smart, co-editor and NISSEM co-convenor
- Panel Discussion
 - Hanako Suzuki (Associate Professor, Ritsumeikan University, Japan)
 - John Mugo (Executive Director, Zizi Afrique Foundation, Kenya) and Mauro Giacomazzi (Deputy Principal, Luigi Giussani Institute of Higher Education, Uganda)
 - Vyjayanthi Sankar (Executive Director, Centre for Science of Student Learning, India)
- Question and Answer Session – Speakers and Audience
- Closing Remarks – Ms. Cecilia Barbieri, Chief of Section, UNESCO Global Citizenship and Peace Education section.