Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing:

- (a) Sexual activity (any person less than eighteen years of age) with a child, regardless of any laws relating to the age of majority or to consent, shall constitute the sexual exploitation and abuse of such person. Mistaken belief in the age of a child shall not constitute a defense under this Agreement.

The Partner shall report allegations of sexual exploitation and abuse, of which the Partner has been informed or has otherwise become aware, promptly to UNESCO, in line with its established reporting mechanism. To the extent legally possible, the Partner will require its employees, agents or any other persons engaged by the Partner to perform any services under this Agreement, to report allegations of sexual exploitation and abuse arising in relation to this Agreement directly to UNESCO.
