

Region III

Latin America and Caribbean

Mexico

INTERACTIVIDAD
CULTURAL Y DESARROLLO

Cultural Interactivity and Development

NGO accredited to provide advisory services to the Intergovernmental Committee for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage

Geographic Coverage of NGO's expertise: Mexico.

Relevant projects or initiatives

Cultural Interactivity and Development participated in the drafting of the General Law on Culture and Cultural Rights of Mexico and collaborated in the approval of state legislation and local regulations, the UNESCO Conventions and the national legal framework on cultural rights.

It has provided training in cultural rights and safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage to 165 municipalities of the State of Puebla, 58 municipalities of the State of Zacatecas and various municipalities of the States of Veracruz, Hidalgo, San Luis Potosí, Aguascalientes, Quintana Roo and Jalisco.

It designed and produced the PODCAST CULTURAS MUNICIPALES, broadcast through Spotify and You Tube (Cultural Interactivity and Development)

It has also established a register of 156 ICH expressions of Tlaxcala, México.

NGO's activity networks and more information

Vision

Cultural Interactivity and Development promotes the recognition, appreciation and the broadest exercise of cultural rights and intangible cultural heritage of local cultures, as resources to achieve sustainable development. It considers that the safeguarding of the intangible cultural heritage is at the core of cultural diversity and inseparable from the dignity of the human person.

Mission

With the aim of assisting in the design and implementation of community safeguarding plans for intangible cultural heritage, Cultural Interactivity and Development develops awareness-raising, training and advisory activities for communities and groups; and, in parallel, takes steps at various levels of government for the development of legislation and public policies for the fullest exercise of cultural rights and, especially, for community safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage.

NGO-90075

Main areas of work related to the Convention

1. Advice: Cultural Interactivity and Development advises national, state and local cultural institutions for the incorporation of cultural rights and, especially, the safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage, both in their regulatory frameworks and in their cultural policies.

2. Training: It designs and gives courses, workshops and conferences on community safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage, from the perspective of human rights and the sustainability of development.

3. Registration: It organizes community registration processes for expressions of intangible cultural heritage.

4. Exhibition: Based on community participatory approaches, it organizes museum exhibitions for the interpretation and dissemination of intangible cultural heritage.

Contact Information

Priv. Manantiales 3
San Lucas Cuauhtelulpan
Tlaxcala, Tlaxcala
CP 90110, Mexico