Min 41/COU/2011/2012: Nomination of Batagwenda Empaako tradition as a cultural heritage for UNESCO'S inscription.

The concept paper on the above subject matter was presented by Mr. Stephen Rwagweri Director Engabu za Tooro.

He informed council that UNESCO in 2000 passed a law to protect culture as an intangible heritage and in 2003 there was a conference which embraced it.

In 2009 Uganda ratified the law. The purpose of the law was to protect and promote intangible culture heritage.

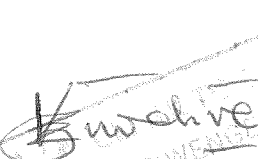

However, he said Districts in which people who observe "Empaako" as part of their culture live; have to express interest and consent. He said four Districts which include Bundibujjo, Ntoroko, Kabarole and Kyenjojo have already approved Empaako culture tradition for UNESCO inscription.

After discussion of the concept paper, Hon Tumuhimbise John moved a motion for council to approve Empaako tradition culture for Batagwenda community and other people who observe it as an intangible culture heritage for UNESCO'S inscription and was unanimously seconded.

Resolution:

Kamwenge District council approved Empaako tradition as an intangible culture heritage for UNESCO'S inscription.

Preamble

The ABAMU was first promulgated in 1995 comprising of students from Bunyoro and Tooro Land. The pioneers were 12 in number in academic year 1995/6 which has gradually increased to 40 members in academic year 2007/8; 12 of whom are ladies and 30 gentlemen. In Bunyoro and Tooro under the following districts:-

While divide and rule is the sound motto, unite and lead is the better one, for there is no art where there is no style, and no style where there is no unity and unity is strength.

We vow dedication to vitalize the union's goals, to develop the zeal of implementation to owe allegiance to our nation and our home areas in particular, to achieve educational, social and cultural wellbeing and to abide by and uphold the provisions and aims of this constitution.

Leadership Structure

The union is headed by the Chairman and his Vice, the General Secretary/Speaker, ambassadors from each District of Bunyoro and Tooro and the then a treasurer. All these under the umbrella of a Patron.
