

Community consent and commitment

The arrow is available at the Secretariat.

Text attached to the arrow :

“ Following an ancestral tradition, the community of Santa Rosa de Huacaria is sending to UNESCO ICH Secretariat as a part of this dossier, and as a sign of agreement and good will, a symbolic object consisting of a traditional arrow made of local chonta wood and adorned with feathers of local birds. This symbolizes the will and commitment of the people in all the activities proposed for safeguarding process.”
