Welcome to the e-learning course
“Skills Anticipation and Matching – YEM project”

Dear Participants,

Within the framework of the European Union (EU) funded Youth Employment in the Mediterranean \(YEM\) project being implemented by UNESCO and on behalf of the International Training Centre of the ILO, we warmly welcome you to the e-learning course “Skills Anticipation and Matching – YEM project”, scheduled on line during the period of 31 May to 16 July 2021.

The main objective of this course is to help participants understand the central importance of identifying current and future skill needs and labour market imbalances in a broader policy framework.

This innovative e-learning course has been designed according to a learner-centered approach. It is highly interactive and engaging and implemented on a period of 7 weeks.

It will consist of the following learning units:

- Unit 1: Skills Anticipation and Matching
- Unit 2: Generation and analysis of labour market data
- Unit 3: Approaches and methodologies for anticipating s kill s needs
- Unit 4: Institutional mechanisms and roles of different actors for anticipation and matching
- Unit 5: Sectoral approaches
- Unit 6: Translation into policy and practice
- Unit 7: Final assignment

Each unit will be animated through various training materials, readings, short animations, gathering moments, forums, exercises and assignments and will last one week. It is highly recommended that each unit is followed and completed at the proposed pace.

Please kindly note that participants that will successfully complete the course will receive a Certificate of Achievement.

Detailed information on the e-learning platform will be communicated soon, including your credentials to access the distance learning platform e-Campus and the course schedule.

Please kindly note that the inaugural webinar, will take place on Wednesday 2nd June 2021 at 12:30 PM to 2:00 PM (CEST).
