B. Contribution of the organization to the implementation of the Convention at the national and international levels (Chapter III and Article 19 of the Convention, paragraph 156 of the Operational Directives)¹

Distinguish between completed activities and ongoing activities contributing to the eight thematic areas of the Convention's Overall Results Framework², as well as to the preparation of periodic reports, nominations, proposals and requests under the Convention's international cooperation mechanisms. If you have not contributed, this should be indicated. Also describe any obstacles or difficulties that your organization may have encountered in such participation.

B.1. Describe your organization's contribution to strengthening institutional and human capacities for safeguarding intangible cultural heritage.

Not to exceed 250 words

UNESCO Listed Martial Arts Promotion Committee, established in 2019 under WoMAU, consists of representative organizations inscribed martial arts in the UNESCO Representative List. This Committee is a regular international exchange committee that aims at promoting human and physical exchanges along with building the groundwork for the institutional policy of martial arts

1. In case your organization operates in several States, please indicate clearly which State or States are concerned by your answers where appropriate.
2. For further information on the Overall Results Framework, please refer to the Chapter 8 of the Basic Texts of the 2003 Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage: <https://ich.unesco.org/en/basic-texts-00503> to be included in the school curriculums in each country. Currently, 12 members(organizations) in 11 countries are interacting, and cooperating with world martial artists and experts, strengthening capacity on the international exchange through Committee meetings and exchange events conducted in 2019 in Korea and 2022 in Iran. During COVID-19 pandemic(2020-2021), online surveys and video conferencing for the committee members were conducted to offer the opportunity to share their experiences for finding ways to overcome the pandemic, enhancing the ability to utilize the online tools in the field.

Furthermore, 'International Martial Arts Contest', the main content of the 'Chungju World Martial Arts Festival' that has proceeded to disseminate the cultural value and diversity of martial arts, was newly held on the online platform in 2021, escaping from the face-to-face event. The participating organizations and people were able to have the experience and ability to continue martial arts activities in a new environment.

B.2. Describe your organization's participation in activities related to the transmission of and education for intangible cultural heritage. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

'Youth Martial Arts Camp', held from 2011 to 2013 with the support of the Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism, and Chung-ju city, was held again in 2022. The 300 youth and their family members have been educated on Taekkyeon (ICH Representative List in 2011) and traditional archery (national intangible cultural heritage in 2020) and visited heritage sites.

Furthermore, WoMAU hosted a mutual training workshop in Uzbekistan Tashkent in 2022 between the traditional martial art of Korea and Uzbekistan (Taekkyeon, Uzbek Jang Sanati). The nationally designated certified trainee and instructor for successor training of Taekkyeon by the Cultural Heritage Administration were invited and has taught 100 Uzbek youth twice. During this event, WoMAU bridged two martial arts organization representatives and played a leading role in signing the Memorandum of Understanding on establishing a mutual branch office in their country for the transmission and education of traditional martial arts.

B.3. Describe your organization's participation in the inventorying and research of intangible cultural heritage. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

WoMAU has been inventorying and collecting 70 martial arts information of its member organizations in 47 countries during 2020-2021. As a following step, it has established the 'World Martial Arts Archive (martialarts-archive.org)', inventorying origin, history, photos, video, techniques, and related organizations. This online platform is in beta service and linked to ichLinks of ICHCAP.

Furthermore, new member organizations of WoMAU has been donated costumes, weapons, and documents of their unique martial art which has been displayed in the World Martial Arts Museum operated by the local government, Chungju. WoMAU has consistently provided information on donations such as practices, techniques, and culture to the World Martial Arts Museum.

B.4. Describe your organization's participation in developing policies, as well as legal and administrative measures, for safeguarding intangible cultural heritage. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

Individual and Group events of the 'Martial Arts Fitness Contest for Youth' which were developed for disseminating the intangible cultural heritage value of traditional martial arts and distribution of traditional martial arts games, are modeled on conventional games and martial arts of the Choseon Dynasty period in Korea. In particular, 'Notdari-throwing' of a group event created combining Notrari, local intangible cultural heritage as well as a game in which people bridge in a row while one person steps on people's back, and archery (national intangible cultural heritage in 2020) in a modern type of games.

Additionally, 'Martial Arts Diary' which manages and certifies the participants' results on its own, has been copyrighted by the Korea Copyright Commission and is currently being developed as an application. Also, this new type of contest has applied for a patent to the Korean Intellectual Property Office, and the Ministry of authority applied to the Excellent Case of government innovation with WoMAU.

B.5. Describe your organization's participation in promoting the role of intangible cultural heritage and its safeguarding in society. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

The Annual General Meeting, the highest decision body of the World Martial Arts Union which consists of 70 member organizations in 47 countries, is a martial arts platform where the representatives of organizations, experts, and officials are involved, and contribute to promoting the role of each country's martial arts as an intangible cultural heritage and safeguarding. It offers the opportunity to introduce less-known traditional martial arts and report on members' safeguarding and promoting activities at an international level.

Furthermore, WoMAU has supported nationwide martial arts festivals or contests to widely distribute traditional martial arts as an intangible cultural heritage for youth and to position them as daily sports activities. Except for the Covid-19 pandemic(2020-2021), it granted about 16,000 USD in 2019 to one contest and 24,000 USD in 2022 to two festivals.

B.6. Describe your organization's participation in raising awareness about intangible cultural heritage. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

It is raising awareness of martial arts as an intangible cultural heritage to martial arts, cultural, social organizations, companies, and martial artists through various projects such as General Meetings, World Martial Arts Festivals, International Martial Arts Contests, Camps, UNESCO Listed Martial Arts Promotion Committee, and Archive. In particular, it has been doing the activities to unspecified individuals through its webpage and social media (Facebook, YouTube, .etc) along with the publishing and distributing semi-annual Newsletters to governments, public institutions, martial arts organizations, schools, associate agencies related to intangible cultural heritage.

B.7. Describe your organization's participation in facilitating the engagement of communities, groups and individuals, as well as other stakeholders, for safeguarding intangible cultural heritage.

Not to exceed 250 words

WoMAU accomplishes 'Local Culture for International Exchange with Korea / subtitle: Intangible Cultural Heritage Week in Tashkent' with the support of the Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism and Chungju (a local government). Through the collaborative performance (twice), workshops (twice), and photo exhibition (one week) based on Korea and Uzbekistan's traditional music and martial arts (intangible cultural heritage), made with martial artists and musicians of Korean and Uzbekistan's representative ICH organizations, it promoted uniqueness of both countries' ICH to the Uzbek citizens, Koryo people (Koreans), and overseas South Koreans. In particular, it allowed the 4th- and 5th generation of Koryo people (Koreans) to appreciate and experience Korean traditional martial arts and music that have to enjoy only in the mass media. The local government officials, related people, martial artists, and musicians who participated directly and indirectly in this event were able to recognize this as one of the safeguarding and promoting measures of intangible cultural heritage and its effectiveness.

In addition, this project was selected as an excellent international exchange with its sustainability by the Korean government and continued doing it in 2023.

B.8. Describe your organization's engagement in cooperation at the bilateral, subregional, regional or international levels for the implementation of the Convention, including initiatives such as the exchange of information and experience, and other joint initiatives.

Not to exceed 250 words

Based on its member network, WoMAU organizes workshops or seminars under the theme of traditional martial arts in association with ICM, Category 2 Centre, which WoMAU initiated and prepared its foundation. The two agencies exchange information and cooperate on projects to improve work efficiency and synergy effects.

In addition, WoMAU established a consultative body together with UNESCO-accredited NGOs here in Korea and held meetings twice a year to share each culture protection activity and analyze the UNESCO ICH agenda. Even during Covid-19, this body hosted at least once a year using online meeting tools to share exemplary cases of safeguarding cultural heritages.

B.9. Describe your organization's involvement in or contribution to the drafting of the national Periodic Report on the implementation of the Convention.

Not to exceed 250 words

WoMAU would gladly accept the role if given the opportunity, but we have not had it yet.

B.10. Describe your organization's participation in the preparation of nominations to the Urgent Safeguarding List or Representative List, requests for International Assistance or proposals of Good Safeguarding Practices.

Not to exceed 250 words

WoMAU has indirectly participated in the preparation of Representative List nominations of our members, like Bokator, inscribed in 2022. The representative community in Cambodia, Kun Bokator Federation, is one of the active member organizations of WoMAU that has promoted Bokator's value of cultural heritage worldwide through its various project platforms, participating in several international contests hosted by WoMAU, recording good results of awarding the Minister of the Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism of Korea in 2021 International Martial Arts Contest group game.

We plan to help the next candidate, such as Horseback Archery, to be inscribed on Representative List.

C. Cooperation with UNESCO

Has your organization carried out activities in cooperation with UNESCO? If yes, please tick the relevant boxes and provide information in the box below.

- Direct cooperation with UNESCO (Headquarters and Field Offices)
