The winner of a movie-reviewing award, Mr Sinthavong Sengmounthong, last week attended the Tokyo International Film Festival (TIFF) in Japan.

He was the second film reviewer from Laos to have been selected to participate in the festival, as well as the only Lao reviewer to cover this year's festival.

Although he was present for only two days of the festival, which ends tomorrow, he had the chance to engage in many activities such as witness the grand opening ceremony, watch movies, meet people from around the world, and other events, all of which he much enjoyed.

He was selected in January as the winner of a movie reviewing competition for the Japan Film Festival in an event held at the Lao-ITECC Mall in Vientiane by the Japan Foundation Asia Centre.

Throughout the Japan Film Festival in Vientiane, have won tickets to come here with my mother," he said.

"It is very important and meaningful for me and my mother. We are doing many things here. I like watching films, especially cartoon animations."

"Attending the TIFF is not only a good opportunity for me but it also allows my mother to watch some movies and learn more about Japan through films. The event has given us the chance to learn more about Japanese film production, including cartoon animation."

"Of course, we are enjoying it very much and would like to attend again if possible," he added.

Mrs Chantha, too, said that she was very happy and excited to join her son at the festival.

"It is very interesting and exciting for me. I would like to thank the Japan Foundation Asia Centre in Laos for giving us this chance to participate in this amazing festival and the organising committee of the TIFF for inviting us to take part in such a special and international event," she said.

The TIFF opened on October 25 at the Roppongi Hills Arena in Tokyo and is marked by various events and activities at several venues.

This year marks the 30th edition of the festival, which is organised in cooperation with many ministries and organisations in Japan.

It is showcasing over 200 films from Japan and around the world, plus film-related events, including stage appearances, Q&A sessions and symposia featuring celebrated guests.

audiences could offer their comments and observations in relation to the films they had seen by submitting responses via an online quiz available at the film festival's website.

Audience members who submitted their comments and observations could also go into the running to win tickets for two to attend the TIFF in Japan.

Mr Sinthavong attended the Japanese Film Festival and reviewed a cartoon animation movie called "The Boy and the Beast".

He was later announced as the overall winner and won the tickets for the TIFF.

As the prize was tickets for two, Mr Sinthavong chose his mother, Mrs Chantha Phoumthidet, to accompany him.

Mr Sinthavong told Vientiane Times he was delighted to be selected as the winner of the film review contest and to attend the TIFF.

"This is my first time at this festival and my first visit to Japan. I am very happy to Delegations and artists from more than 20 countries enjoyed the mask performances from Laos and Korea at the opening of the 6th International Mask Arts and Culture Organisations (IMACO) International Conference in Vientiane yesterday.

The IMACO international conference showcased colourful and beautiful mask performances of Laos such as Lammakien and the dark Arirang dance of Korea.

The delegations also visited the Mask Exhibition organised outside the conference hall, with more than 5,000 masks on display at the venue giving an insight into the culture of countries participating in the conference.

Minister of Information, Culture and Tourism, Dr Bosengkham Vongdara, delivered a speech to mark the opening of the IMACO International Conference. IMACO president Kweon Youngsae also delivered a speech on the significance of the conference in promoting cultural exchange.

Dr Bosengkham said Laos was entrusted with hosting the IMACO International Conference during October 31-November 3 in the wonderful atmosphere of That Luang Festival and the official launch of Visit Laos Year 2018.

"As you are aware, each nation has its own cultural uniqueness and diversity which reflects through their traditional identity, which leads to worldwide cultural diversity as a whole, and the mask culture is one amongst the above cultural distinctions," he said.

The Korean Arirang dance and mask performance show were appreciated by the audience.

"The aim of organising today's conference in Lao PDR is to embrace various global masks to showcase humankind's wisdom through the mask performances over the centuries. Furthermore, it is also to promote the preservation of cultural values and contribute to creating mutual deeper awareness and understanding on the cultural diversity of all people across the world," he said.

"On this auspicious occasion, I would like to sincerely extend my congratulation to UNESCO for its cooperative support to IMACO in collecting and registering the mask culture as the world's intangible cultural heritage."

During the IMACO International Conference, delegations will participate in various discussions on That Luang Festival and the official launch of Visit Laos Year 2018.

The delegations will visit famous tourist sites in Vientiane such as Buddha Park, That Luang, Patouxay and Sisaket temple before leaving Laos.

The exhibition will continue until the conference ends, giving a chance for the public to see masks from many countries.

The IMACO International Conference is organised every two years in member countries. The first conference took place in Korea in 2007 while the second was held in Bangkok, Thailand, in 2009, and the third in Bali, Indonesia, in 2011.

The fourth conference was held in Thimphu, Bhutan, in 2013, and the fifth took place in Shanghai, China.

IMACO's key project is the biennial international conference to project the mask culture in countries and cities through business agreements. It also organises content data of world mask cultural heritage and builds a network system with international mask cultural organisations, research institutions and individuals.

The IMACO Secretariat plays a role as an international mask centre, supporting activities for mask-related festivals, and promoting masks and culture through exhibitions.

IMACO was established in 2006 with 40 individual and group organisation members in 24 countries. Its current members include 143 individual and group organisations in 63 countries.

Celebrity couple Andie Chen and Kate Pang leave Mediacorp

SINGAPORE (Straits Times/ANN)— Local celebrity couple Andie Chen and Kate Pang have left Mediacorp to focus on their online channel Kandie Family.

Chen said in a statement: "I have always placed my growth as an artist as the top priority in every career decision I make. This means making unique and seemingly illogical career choices at times. Setting up my own company will give me the freedom to pursue projects that I am passionate about and I believe this is the only way an artist can reach his full potential."

"I look forward to challenging myself in the days ahead with projects on stage, online, film and television. Not only as a performer, but also as a producer and director."

The Mediacorp contracts for Chen, 32, and Pang, 34, ended on Oct 31. Chen's notable television dramas include Hero (2016) and The Journey: Our Homeland (2015), while Pang won a Star Award for Best Newcomer in 2012 for A Tale Of 2 Cities.

Pang came to Singapore in 2011 and had originally intended to stay for two years. But she has lived here for seven thus far. The couple have two children.

She said: "In this big family, I've gotten a lot of friendship and have also built my own family. In this life, there is more than one milestone, because of my family and children, need more time and space to realise my dreams."

The couple move on to the next stage of their careers with the blessings of Mediacorp. Ms Georgina Chang, head of The Celebrity Agency, said: "Kate and Andie are an extremely talented couple. They are true artistic souls and stay authentic to their beliefs and passion. I know they will continue to do very well as artists and I wish them every success."

Chen added: "The end of my contract is by no means an end to my relationship with Mediacorp, we are still working on projects currently and will be working together regularly in the future."

BY GLAZYL Y. MASCULINO

CRIMES in Negros Occidental during the observance of Undas 2017 decreased by 56.33 percent compared to last year's statistics, records of the Negros Occidental Police Provincial Office (Noeppo) showed.

Inspector Charmac De Paz, public information officer of Noeppo, said in a press release Friday that 41 incidents were recorded

The drop in the crime volume is a result of the intensified security measures through the deployment of policemen in cemeteries, public markets, transportation hubs, and other places of convergence in the province, it said.

레이저 탈춤으로 IMACO 이미지를 형상화 한 식전행사를 시작으로 환희 아리랑과 라오스국립 예술단 공연, 북청사자놀음, 하회별신굿탈놀이가 잇따라 공연된 이날 개막식에서 윤병진 IMACO 사무총장은 유창한 영어솜씨로 참석 내빈들을 일일이 소개하고 인류 보편문화 미래비전을 제시, 참석자들로 부터 우리같은 기립박수를 받기도 했다

개막식을 시작으로 이날 오후에는 권영세 안동시장과 천썩라이 중국대외문화교류중심 대표, 와디맨 인도네시아 장관, 정정숙 전주문화재단 대표, 이길배 문화재청 무형문화재과장 등이 참석, IMACO 발전방향에 관한 정책포럼을 가졌다

오는 3일까지 열리는 이 컨퍼런스는 2일 부터 22개국 대표들이 한자리에 모여 탈문화의 인류 보편적 가치를 앞 세워 지구촌 탈춤의 유네스코 세계무형문화유산 공동등재 방안을 두고 열띤 토론을 갖는 학술발표회도 두차례 연다.

이마코 세계총회와 학술대회가 열린 1일 오후, 라오스 수도 비엔티안 랜드마크호텔에서 열린 세계탈전시회에는 입추의 여지가 없을 정도로 현지인들이 찾아와 성황을 이뤘다.

권영세 IMACO 회장(안동시장)은 “세계 어느 대륙 어느 국가나 민족도 전통적인 탈 문화를 공통적으로 가지고 있다”면서 “인류 공통의 보편 문화인 이 탈과 탈춤을 통하여 지구촌 세계인들에게 안동을 각인시키고 우리문화의 우수성을 알리는데 최선을 다하겠다”고 다짐했다.

한편, 안동국제탈춤페스티벌 개최 과정에서 필요성이 요구돼 설립된 IMACO는 지난 2006년 한국을 시작으로 태국, 인도네시아, 부탄, 중국 현지에서 회원국이 참석한 세계총회와 국제학술대회를 격년제 컨퍼런스 형태로 열어 오다 2016년 유네스코 산하 NGO 단체로 공식 등록됐다.

with President Rodrigo Duterte gracing the closing highlights.

Last year, Bacolod also participated in the Andong Maskdance Festival from September 29 to October 8.

Andong is a sister city of Bacolod, based on the agreement signed on September 2008.

It was then that Young-Sae invited Leonardia to attend the 6th Imaco International Conference in Laos.

Imaco, which has 63 member-countries, is a group of international festivals that use masks.
